

Sixth Issue of Groundbreaking Digital Comic IN MAPS & LEGENDS Releases on May 4, 2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 4, 2011: IN MAPS & LEGENDS, a nine-issue digital comic illustrated by Niki Smith and written by Michael Jasper, continues with its sixth issue on May 4, 2011.

You can read the comic in the digital format you prefer, on whichever ebook device you own: the Android Phone, Windows Phone, or iPhone; the Kindle, the Nook, the iPad, or the Samsung Galaxy Tab; or on your desktop, laptop, or the Web (PDF, CBZ, HTML, and Flash).

You can purchase all issues of the ongoing, contemporary fantasy comic from over a dozen different online distributors, including Comixology, Graphicly, Amazon, Barnes & Noble, Apple's iBooks, the Illustrated Section, the Google eBookstore, MyDigitalComics, and DriveThruComics. Issues sell for just $.99 each.

The target audience is for fans of The Sandman, Unwritten, and LOST—supernatural urban fantasy with a hint of science fiction wrapped up in it.

Here's a quick summary of the sixth issue:

Kait gets lost on a world she can't map—with a man she can't comprehend and a boy she can't protect—while her old friends and new allies scatter across the ravaged world of Stryla.

IN MAPS & LEGENDS 6 \(of 9\) mixes together urban fantasy, science fiction, and steampunk, with art by Niki Smith and story by Michael Jasper. A winner of the November 2009 Zuda Comics competition hosted by DC Comics, the story continues here!
